WILLIAM J. STEWART, JR.
EHS Class of 1937

Teacher of Physical Education and
Coach of Athletics at EHS
For Twenty Years

William J. Stewart, Jr. graduated from English High in 1937. While at the English High, Coach Stewart participated in football, baseball and hockey.

Mr. Stewart then prepped at Lawrence Academy from where he was graduated in 1939.

In the fall of 1939, William J. Stewart entered Notre Dame and was graduated in 1942. While at his Alma Mater, Stewart performed on the gridiron, and was a catcher on the "Fighting Irish" nine.

Upon his graduation he entered the U.S. Army and was discharged in 1946.

His first coaching assignment was at the University of Mass. — the Fort Devens Football Team.

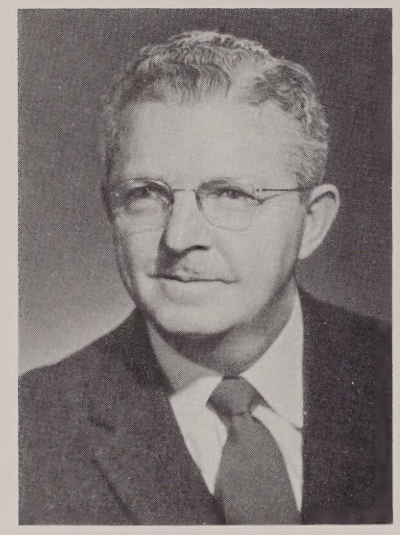
In 1947 his Alma Mater, the Blue and Blue, recognized his superior talents and beckoned him to serve as its mentor.

In his twenty years at English High, Coach Stewart has amassed a most enviable record in all sports. His football teams alone have been victorious 112 times as against 40 losses and 6 ties.

Within the past five years, various organizations have recognized his dedication to youth and have acclaimed him "Man of the Year." They include the Dorchester Civic Club, the English High School Alumni Association and more recently the "Notre Dame Club" of Boston.

Attesting to his success as a coach and leader are all the players who have come under his direction for the past twenty years, his coaches at all levels, his late father William J. Stewart, Sr., who served as a great inspiration and particularly his wife, Helen and their four children.

The Spirit



DR. JOSEPH L. MALONE
English Head Master

As we prepare for the 80th Annual English-Latin football game, many memories of the past are present. Alumni from both schools will come to witness the teams of today and the thoughts of games gone by will pass in front of their eyes.

Why do they come? Do thousands of Alumni remember this classic simply because they enjoy football? I think not. It's more than a test of football. There is more to the game than the waving of banners. For in this stadium, ever present at this Thanksgiving Day ritual, is the spirit of tradition, and the hopes of the years to come.

Soon the stands will be empty, but the tradition will be carried on by all who were here. These people were all witnesses of things to come. Soon these young men will be the leaders of our community. Carried by the Spirit that they found in these schools, and with these teams.

One basic foundation that is prevalent in us all, and which is particularly exemplified on the field is Sportsmanship. The two men, present today, who have followed young men on and off the field for many years, and who have worked the hardest to mold strong able men are the two coaches. William Stewart of English and Howard Smith of Latin. These men have given numerous hours of devotion to their Schools and to their teams, and today when we honor Sportsmanship we honor them, as the men who have worked the hardest for the ideal of Sportsmanship.

DR. WILFRED O'LEARY
Latin Head Master

As we praise the present and glorify the past, let us now look forward to the future and what the "Seventies" will bring. If we are to prosper as we hope, we must look ahead with clear eyes and uplifted heads, aware that we must use all our capabilities to succeed. And we must look back, if only for a moment to know our mistakes and use all this knowledge to plan ahead for a more productive future.

A Little Better

A little better skill in posing, a little better likeness and Boston's foremost imprint—and you have a much better photograph, much more satisfaction and far wider approval of results. Then we add beautiful covers and scrupulous care in details of packing and, mark it — we deliver on time. No detail escapes our interested care.

FRANK W. JOHNSON

B.L.S. Class of 1904

Mr. Frank W. Johnson graduated from the Boston Latin School in 1904. He had seen every Latin-English game since 1897 and kept meticulous records of each. He was the sole arbitrator of any dispute as to who played and what the score was. He was quiet, self-effacing and the quintessence of culture. Rain or shine, sleet or snow, Mr. Johnson could be counted upon to be at the game. His familiar figure was known to thousands of the B.L.S. Alumni. Truly he was the Clio of the Latin School football sagas. He will be fondly remembered by all those who knew him and respected him for his sterling character.

Glancing at the Record

75 YEARS AGO 5th Game of the Series

1891 . . . BLS 14 — EHS 10 . . . Douglass, Mahoney and Manahan, all of English, carried the ball in a series of "Wedges" over the BLS goal . . . A muff of a punt and Gay (L) got the ball and carried to the Blue's 5 . . . "Ends Back" and Beale (L) followed Scannell over the goal. Douglass (E) scored after a series of line rushes . . . Bullard (E) kicked goal . . . Score now E 10 — L 4 . . . Another dropped punt by the Blue and Gay picked up ball and ran for a Latin TD . . . Score at half E 10 — L 10 . . . Second half EHS worked the ball to the Latin TWO . . . A rush, a fumble, a run the length of the field by Gould (L) and the final score was L 14 — E 10.

70 YEARS AGO 10th Game of the Series

1896 . . . EHS 6 — BLS 0 . . . Drawings show the referee in high derby hat and ankle length coat as EHS wins 6-0 . . . another day of drizzling rain . . . another day of mud . . . the smoke from the railroad engines near the South End Grounds covered the field . . . Sports writer said: "It will go in history as the finest exhibition of football ever played between the two greatest rivals of the League." . . . A scoreless first half . . . At the start of the second half Capt. Manahan (E) ran off tackle for 40 yards and a TD . . . C. Daly and Lowe stood out for BLS . . . Manahan, who played right tackle (days of "tackles back"), Woodbury, Sherlock and Walsh were among the EHS stars . . . 3500 wildly excited people cheered the combat in the rain."

55 YEARS AGO 25th Game of the Series

1911 — Fenway Park . . . BLS 0 — EHS 0 . . . Clear 35° day — soft field — attendance 7,000. This was the fifth time that the game of the year had resulted in a tie, the third scoreless tie. King, the BLS halfback played a spectacular game, but this was offset by many fumbles, especially by BLS. These teams were evenly matched and getting the ball inside the twenty-yard line was impossible for each. Was very interesting game for spectators as a great display of defensive football was shown by English and Latin.

Line-up for BLS was Tom Craven and Paul Duff LE, McCarthy LT, Colby LG, Soucy C, Daley, Berman and Dukeshire RG, Capt. Austin Tate RT, Weschkolofsky and Saladine RE, Greene and Doherty QB, R. S. C. King LHB, Boles and Craven RHB, and Max Gersumky FB. The opening EHS team had Shuttleworth RE, Murphy RT, Goodman and Bradley RG, Cohen C, Casey LG, Ignico LT, Maginnes and Meade LE, Capt. Joe Dolan QB, Pendleton, and Ashley RHB, McPherson LHB, and Barnard FB. Ignico and Maginnes excelled for English.

25 YEARS AGO 55th Game of the Series

1941 — Braves Field . . . BLS 19 — EHS 0 . . . Special note: Beautiful day . . . Co-Captain O'Malley, the sparkplug of the Blue could not play . . . "Sparked by a brilliant pass-pitching halfback, a 145 lb. 'powerhouse' fullback and a glue-fingered end, BLS won" . . . Sullivan to McDermott passes scored twice and set up a third for Co-Captain Brosnahan to score . . . Co-Captain Kelly passed to Dunn for the single extra point . . . Outstanding for the Blue: Murphy, Carven, Co-Captain Dick Kearns, Kasabian, and all the Sullivans . . . BLS heroes: Brosnahan, Kelly, McDermott, Tarushka, Monahan.

20 YEARS AGO 60th Game of the Series

1946 — Harvard Stadium . . . EHS 19 — BLS 0 . . . Dan Brosnahon (E) came back after being out a month with injuries to roll over and run through the Purple . . . Set up TDs for Balerna, Balfour and Capt. Tsavaris to score . . . The Blue line averaged nearly 200 pounds to the Purple's 160 . . . Latin made two marches in the third period to the 7 and the 3 . . . The Blue held each time . . . Dick Curran (L) injured leg on opening kick-off . . . Mabry (L), a converted guard, stood out in the Latin backfield . . . Al Luciano, Conrad Balfour, and Dell'Orfano pleased the large gathering of Old Blues . . . TDs came as follows: 8 yard pass Brosnahan to Tsavaris, 10 yard pass followed by a 35 yard run . . . Luciano to Dell'Orfano, and Balfour from the 2 . . . Purple lights: Garcia, Powell, Mabry, and Prendergast . . . For the Blue: the whole team was grand.

10 YEARS AGO 70th Game of the Series

1956 — B. U. Field . . . BLS 19 — EHS 12 . . . The Purple had to come from behind to win . . . and when Eastie unexpectedly defeated Southie, the Purple won the Conference Championship . . . Corvi, Latin passer, and Crosson combined for 3 TD's of 10, 36, and 65 yards . . . Mullins took charge of the Blue attack . . . Scored from the one, after a Latin fumble on the five and on a 15 yard pass from Donovan on the 44, put the Blue out in front 12-6 . . . Latin's continual fumbling and penalties held the Purple at bay . . . The Blue fumbled on its 36, Crosson recovered, next play Corvi passed and scored, tieing the score . . . Fourth period: English on the march to the Purple 14 . . . Fumble . . . Crosson recovered . . . Crosson up middle to 29 . . . Johnson to 40 . . . Crosson and DeYesso to 34 . . . Clipping penalty-back to midfield . . . everyone knew a pass was coming . . . it came . . . and Latin was home . . . Blue stars: Mullins, Donovan, Stuart and LeBlanc . . . for the Purple: Crosson, Corvi, Johnson, McCool, and Laird.

5 YEARS AGO 75th Game of the Series

1961 — Harvard Stadium . . . EHS 39 — BLS 0 . . . Temperature 41° to 26°. Attendance over 20,000. After four days of rain, although it had ceased at game time, the field was muddy. The game was hard fought, but difficult to believe according to the lopsided score. English set a new record by scoring 39 points in a game. The former record was 38 points, scored by Latin in 1888 at Franklin Park. EHS led 6 to 0 at the end of the first period on a pass interception by Co-Capt. Bob Cofield, who carried the ball up the sideline for 88 yards. Early in the second period he again intercepted a Latin pass and ran 39 yards for the score and added two points by a rush conversion. Cofield had missed the first half of the season on account of injuries but the rests which he was given every few minutes by being replaced evidently paid off. Just before the half ended Layne ran over for 40 yards for a T.D. EHS led 14 to 0 at the half. Layne made his second T.D. halfway through the third period by going through left tackle from the one-yard line. In the last period speedy Preston Johnson intercepted a Latin pass and romped 65 yards for a T.D. In the same period Tom Meany, intending to punt, received a high pass from center and decided to run behind beautiful blockers, and trotted about 60 yards for the score. Prifty kicked the point after. The closest Latin came to scoring was at the 16-yard marker, which was the line of scrimmage in the first period when Cofield intercepted which resulted in the first touchdown. Co-Capt. Mike Adessa and the Wilsons excelled in the line for E.H.S. while Co-Capt. Charles Gandy, Ed Bailey, Paul Clifford, and George Broks shone for Latin in a losing cause.

LAST YEAR 79th Game of the Series

1965 . . . BLS 24 — EHS 12 . . . Having suffered its first loss in two years only one week before, a fired-up Latin School team nearly ran English out of Harvard Stadium as it scored four touchdowns, came within ten yards of the end zone on three drives, ran up a total offense of 233 yards, and tied this old series at 33 wins apiece, with 13 ties.

Latin School opened the scoring at 5:21 of the first period when Captain Jack Burns broke through left tackle and raced 31 yards for the score. Twice more during the first half the Purple had first and goal but was repelled by the English line. BLS dominated the first half, but led only 6-0 at intermission.

In the second half Capt. Burns took up where he left off by pouncing on an EHS fumble at the Blue 41 and, nine plays later, driving into paydirt from the three. At the end of the third quarter it was BLS 12, EHS 0.

English got on the scoreboard at 2:38 of the fourth quarter when quarterback Mike Thomas sneaked over from the two to cap a 42 yard drive. However, any EHS hopes for a comeback were dashed in exactly eleven seconds as BLS junior halfback Scott Guild gathered in the ensuing kickoff on his own 13 yard line and didn't stop until he was in the Blue and Blue end zone 87 yards away — to the hysterical delight of at least half of the 20,000 spectators.

Latin School put the game out of reach halfway through the last period when Purple quarterback Vin Costello pitched out to second-string QB, turned halfback, "Y.A." Russo, who then threw a perfect 35 yard pass to end Bill Gallagher, in full stride and all alone on the English 20. About four seconds later it was 24-6 and a BLS victory was assured. English scored again with 26 seconds left on a ten yard pass from Thomas to Mal McCluskey.

The line play, blocking, and tackling by both teams was suberb.

EHS stalwarts were Dillworth, Thomas, and Priester. For BLS — the whole team.
